THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

STEVENS' GUNBOAT NAUGATUCK.—The Naugatuck is intended to be a model of and illustrate one or two novel ideas connected with that engine of war, viz: the ability to sink and rise with great rapidity; to turn and manage the vessel by means of two propellers situated on either side of the stern, and to take up the recoil of the gun by means of India rubber springs.

The gun is mounted midship, pointed towards the bow, and is loaded from below by depressing the muzzle downwards.

The hull of the boat is constructed of iron, 101 feet in length, 20 feet beam, and about 7 feet deep. She draws about 5½ feet, light, and 9 feet when submerged. Her speed is eleven miles an hour, light, and five and a half miles when submerged. She is not iron clad, with the exception of the bow, but in action, when submerged, has two feet of water between the two decks, and presents but a small surface upon which the enemy can bring their cannon to bear. The Naugatuck will be supplied with two of James' 12-pound howitzers, and will have a crew of about twenty-four men, namely:

Mr. W. W. Shippen, agent for the Hoboken Land and Improvement Company, will go out in temporary command. The officers are as follows: Lieutenant J. Wall Wilson, of the United States service, first officer; E. L. Morton, second officer; Thos. Lingle, engineer. The officers' quarters are on deck. When in action but one person is necessarily exposed on deck.—New York Evening Post.

BLONDIN IN ENGLAND.—Monsieur Blondin, who created some excitement in America by the performances on the tight rope across the Falls of Niagara, is supposed to have made, since his first appearance in England, no less a sum than $150,000. He has just entered into an engagement for a limited number of provincial performances, by which he will net the sum of $50,000. He has also been re-engaged for the approaching season at the Crystal Palace—a place which has sadly degenerated from the high position which it once held, being now a combination of raree-show, tea-garden, and Barnum-like museum.

We understand that some of the prominent Union men in Western Virginia intend to urge upon Gen. Fremont, who is now in the city, the importance of arresting two or three hundred of the leading secessionists in this section of the state, and holding them as hostages for the release of the Union men arrested and imprisoned at Richmond and other places.—Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer, March 29.

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc, etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

WINES AND LIQUORS AT WHEELOCK'S.

CONSTANTLY on hand the purest articles at reasonable prices. It is not necessary to pay an exorbitant price to get the best, if you go to a wholesale house. These goods were all bought with the gold, in bond, and consequently were shipped in the original packages. Many articles cannot, by law, be imported in less than 100 gallon packages, and small dealers cannot buy them in so large quantities, consequently if you want go to Wheelock's. The stock is complete, and any one wanting a pure article can depend on getting it there. The stock consists in part of Fine Old

Genuine Liquors

FURNITURE WAREHOUSE

N. SWAGER,

WOULD call the attention of the people of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties, to his increased facilities for manufacturing

PARLOR, CHAMBER AND COMMON FURNIRURE

which he will sell at Greatly Reduced Prices.

In addition to the articles manufactured by himself he keeps a large stock of Imported Furniture, which embraces everything needed for household use, and which, as well as his own manufacture, is of the latest styles and superior quality.

Coffins, of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

Metalic Burial Cases and Caskets.

I have just received a large assortment of these articles, of an improved style and perfectly air tight. As none have been kept in this city for the last three or four years, much inconvenience has been experienced in sending for them.

I invite an examination of all my stock, knowing that I can give satisfaction both in quality and price. Shop on Milwaukee street, second door above Central Bank, sign of the coffin. N. SWAGER.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

STEVENS' GUNBOAT NAUGATUCK.—The Naugatuck is intended to be a model of and illustrate one or two novel ideas connected with that engine of war, viz: the ability to sink and rise with great rapidity; to turn and manage the vessel by means of two propellers situated on either side of the stern, and to take up the recoil of the gun by means of India rubber springs.

The gun is mounted midship, pointed towards the bow, and is loaded from below by depressing the muzzle downwards.

The hull of the boat is constructed of iron, 101 feet in length, 20 feet beam, and about 7 feet deep. She draws about 5½ feet, light, and 9 feet when submerged. Her speed is eleven miles an hour, light, and five and a half miles when submerged. She is not iron clad, with the exception of the bow, but in action, when submerged, has two feet of water between the two decks, and presents but a small surface upon which the enemy can bring their cannon to bear. The Naugatuck will be supplied with two of James' 12-pound howitzers, and will have a crew of about twenty-four men, namely:

Mr. W. W. Shippen, agent for the Hoboken Land and Improvement Company, will go out in temporary command. The officers are as follows: Lieutenant J. Wall Wilson, of the United States service, first officer; E. L. Morton, second-officer; Thos. Lingle, engineer. The officers' quarters are on deck. When in action but one person is necessarily exposed on deck.—New York Evening Post.

BLONDIN IN ENGLAND.—Monsieur Blondin, who created some excitement in America by the performances on the tight rope across the Falls of Niagara, is supposed to have made, since his first appearance in England, no less a sum than $150,000. He has just entered into an engagement for a limited number of provincial performances, by which he will net the sum of $50,000. He has also been re-engaged for the approaching season at the Crystal Palace—a place which has sadly degenerated from the high position which it once held, being now a combination of raree-show, ten-garden, and Barnum-like museum.

We understand that some of the prominent Union men in Western Virginia intend to urge upon Gen. Fremont, who is now in the city, the importance of arresting two or three hundred of the leading secessionists in this section of the state, and holding them as hostages for the release of the Union men arrested and imprisoned at Richmond and other places.—Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer, March 29.

GREAT REDUCTION IN The Prices OF SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Approaching Naval Contest.

The reports in relation to the Merrimac agree that she is ready, and only waiting for more heavy guns. The rebels are also improving the condition of the Jamestown and Yorktown, and evidently mean to make a desperate fight. When it comes off, it will be the greatest naval duel on record. There will be some 420 pounders used on our side this time, besides projectiles not before tried. It will be worth a good deal to witness this grand contest between these iron clad monsters. If the little Monitor is victorious, there will be a grand jubilee throughout the land, as we shall not only have destroyed the power of a dangerous enemy, but it will be a demonstration that we have produced a war vessel that revolutionizes naval contests on the sea. The nations of the world will then know that they must all rebuild their navies; and we can construct one as soon as any.

Trouble Among the Rebels.

The mutiny of two North Carolina regiments at Charleston, must have been a serious affair, as they plundered the stores of the city. Two German companies have also revolted at Fort Pulaski, near Savannah. There seems to be degrees among the chivalry, as Virginia and North Carolina troops are put low down on the list of the brave, by the South Carolinians and Georgians.—Gov. Wise has also lost caste among them, being denounced as a coward and paltroon. He has the company of Pillow and Floyd, previously degraded. The muster roll of paltroons is likely to be increased as the war goes on, and when southern chivalry is simmered down, it will be found to be sounding brass and nothing more.

The radical abolitionist's idea of liberty is,—"Maine law," "no church that is not my church," "no God that is not my God," "no Bible that is not the Bible as I understand it," "no constitution that is not as Wendell Phillips or Charles Sumner expounds it."—N. Y. Express.

The doughface idea of liberty is "free whisky," "no church that is not based on women whipping and stealing children," "no God that is not the exclusive God of the slaveholder," "no Bible that is not the Bible of the oppressor," "no constitution that is not made to protect the rights of rebels, while freedom is the exception and slavery is lawful throughout the republic."

The K. G. C's—This mischievous society of traitors, whose intrigues came near at one time to precipitate Kentucky into the hands of secessionists, and which doubtless did much to place Kentucky into the hands of rebels, is now "contraband" in Kentucky, the legislature having passed a law making it a criminal offence, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for from one to five years, to belong to any of its lodges.

While this traitorous concern is excluded from a slave state, it is taking root and extending in the free states. Its members are loud and constant in denouncing "abolitionists" as traitors, and declaring republicans to be the cause of the war. Wendell Phillips ought to be hung, but a pardon extended to Jeff. Davis. Every efficient effort of our government to suppress the rebellion is wrong, and the rebels are only defending the constitutional rights assailed by the abolitionists. "By their fruits shall ye know them."

☞ Wherever our armies have gone to crush the rebellion they have invariably found that the localities where there are many slaves rebels are most numerous, and where slavery is weak the Union sentiment is strong. It cannot be doubted that slavery is the cause of the rebellion, and that if there were no slavery there would be no disunion.

☞ The Chicago Times says that "the constitution was made to protect the rights of even rebel citizens from federal vengeance." What are the rights of men who are engaged in a rebellion against all the laws of the land, and who are leagued together for the purpose of taking the life of every one who opposes them? While the rebels are employing the savages to kill and scalp our volunteers, and while their soldiers are desecrating the graves of the brave dead at Bull Run, the Chicago Times talks of the rights of these wretches, and calls them citizens.

The Ladies of Cincinnati After the Mayor.—Forty-six ladies of Cincinnati have petitioned the legislature to impeach and remove from office Mayor Hatch, of that city. This is doubtless on account of the Wendell Philips mobbing affair, which, it is charged, was winked at by the mayor.

☞ It's reported that there are two thousand federal troops sick at Nashville. The change of climate and the water is unfavorable to health. There are no springs nor wells at Nashville, the rock being so near the surface of the ground as to prevent it. Their water is obtained from the river and from the roofs of the houses. With their usual want of enterprise at the south, they have no good cisterns, hence their rain water is poor stuff.

DARING ROBBERY IN ST. LOUIS.

A Private Soldier with a Squad of Wisconsin Boys Arrests a Banker and Robs his Safe.

The St. Louis Democrat gives a statement of what will rank in the annals of crime as one of the boldest and most impudent robberies on record. The young man Redman is, by his own statement, only sixteen years old. The Democrat says:

On the 20th instant, Sergeant C. W. Redman of company H, Third Missouri Volunteers, arrived from Rolla with Col. Shepard and guard, having in charge the prisoners from Pea Ridge. Sergeant Redman has since distinguished himself by conduct exhibiting far more shrewdness, impudence and love of money, than integrity and love of country. On Tuesday, Mr. Cameron, Mr. Jennings, and two or three other citizens residing several miles from the city, on the Bellefontaine road, made complaint at the Provost Marshal's office that a U. S. sergeant and six privates, ostensibly acting under regular orders, had visited and searched their premises, and after seizing various sums of money and other valuables had departed without giving any further explanation of their conduct than that they were obeying orders. The description of the sergeant was too general to promise his speedy detection, and it was really questionable if he were even a U. S. officer.—Steps were, however, taken with a view of discovering and arresting the rogue. On the day after these steps were initiated, an officer claiming to be sergeant Reed, presented himself at the headquarters of Major McConnell, commanding the Provost guard, on Sixth near Morgan street, and exhibited an order, purporting to be signed by Provost Marshal Leighton, for a detail of six men to accompany the said Reed at once, upon particularly pressing and important business. A perusal of the document satisfied Major McConnell that it was a blunder or a forgery, and he accordingly ordered an officer to proceed with the applicant to the Provost Marshal's office. On the way over "Sergeant Reed" suddenly gave his companion the slip, and disappeared.—Thursday morning, in the absence of Maj. McConnell, "Reed" again appeared with an order for six men and presented it Lieutenant Ashton, who perceived it to be irregular and refused to grant it. Not knowing of the previous affair of the kind, the Lieutenant did not order the man's arrest, but sent him to the Provost Marshal's office.—Of course he did not call there. Soon afterwards he appeared at Benton Barracks, No. 60, the quarters of the 17th Wisconsin infantry, and informed Capt. Southworth, of Company G, that Gen. Halleck had sent him for a detail of eight men to be immediately placed in his command for the execution of business of great moment. Although, as we are officially informed, "Reed" exhibited no written document to Captain Southworth, but verbally communicated the pretended order, the Wisconsin captain at once complied with the demand!

Sergeant "Reed" and squad moved with military dignity down Grand avenue, Morgan street and Broadway, to the banking house of G. S. Hammer & Co., No. 231, on the east side of Broadway, between Cherry and Wash streets. The officer placed several of his men at the door to prevent the intrusion of outsiders, and entered with the others. Only Mr. Hammer was in the store, and he was engaged in counting some fifteen thousand dollars which he had in piles around him behind the counter.—"Reed" promptly told the banker that he had General Halleck's order for his immediate arrest. Mr. H. asked for what? but "Reed" replied that he did not know, he had simply to take him in custody, and no doubt wrong would not be done him. Mr. H. said he would place the money in the safe and go at once, but the officer told him he must leave the money as it was. Mr. H. hastily seized a bag containing $7,000 in gold, and also snatched a pile of bills, hurriedly threw them into a small vault in the interior of his large safe, and shut the door. This locked the door of the vault. He then attempted to close the remaining doors of the safe, but a bayonet was inserted between them and he was collared. He at once resigned the key, and was then allowed to shut and fasten the doors. "Reed" gave him in charge of his men, and bade them take him to Broadway Garden, to be guarded by the soldiers there till further orders. The party proceeded up Broadway on a car, and "Reed," with a single sentinel at the door, attempted to unlock the safe. In this he failed, but indignantly dispatched a messenger to Broadway Garden, with an order that the prisoner should be brought back again.

At the Garden, Hammer was received by the commanding officer without a suspicion that he was not properly in military custody, and in the full belief that his commitment was fully authorized. The requisition for his return was obeyed with alacrity. In half an hour after his arrival he left the Garden, again guarded by the six soldiers, and was taken in a street car down Broadway. In the store he was compelled to take the key and unlock the safe. In his eagerness the robber sergeant failed to notice the interior vault, and hence it remained closed. "Reed" next ordered the seven men to escort the captive back again, and saw them safely off.

Leaving the door locked and a sentinel standing outside, he proceeded to the restaurant, No. 317 Broadway, and soon afterward returned in citizen's clothes. He then entered, and dismissed the sentinel, who of course obeyed orders and moved off. A party of curious gazers on the sidewalk, could look directly through the windows into the store and observe all the sergeant's movements. He took several piles of bills from the safe and the rear of the counter, and a large quantity of gold and silver. A banker's tray stacked with half dollars, piled full of them, he covered with some sheets of paper, and leisurely placed under his arm. Laden with his booty, he passed to the door, locked it in sight of the crowd, and walked off with the dignity and speed of a smart man of business engaged in an every day transaction!

Of course the spectators were impressed with the idea that Messrs. Hammer & Co. had been violating some law, and were being summarily dealt with in consequence.

The amount taken was $2,289.10, in United States treasury notes, Illinois currency, and gold and silver.

Immediately after Mr. Hammer's arrest, and when he had been sent off, his partner, Mr. Stryker, arrived, but could only learn that Mr. H. had been subjected to military arrest. He called on the provost marshal general, Provost Marshal Leighton, Gen. Halleck, Major McConnell, but none of them knew aught of the matter. He received a pass to go through all the military prisons, and not until 5 p. m., did he discover where Hammer was.

The facts at last appearing, the prisoner's release was ordered, and the matter was laid before U. S. Police Captain Tunnecliff. His investigations and those of his officers soon showed that "Reed's" real name was Chas. W. Redman, a native of St. Louis county, whose father resides near the Six Mile House, on the Bellefontaine road. Thither several of the detectives proceeded, and there obtained Redman's portrait.

The officers searched the city during the night, and became satisfied that he had not left town, but did not secure him.—Yesterday morning a detective was stationed at each depot to arrest the rogue should he attempt to leave on an early train. The officer at the Alton & Chicago train waited in vain till the cars were just starting, and was then rewarded by seeing Redman leap on board. The detective, Samuel L. Jones, followed and accompanied him to Alton, being unable to get off the cars nearer this city. He returned with the prisoner at about 12 m. yesterday.

Redman acknowledged that he took the money, but insisted that he acted under the orders of a superior officer, who furnished him with a note bearing Gen. Halleck's name. Sergeant "Reed" was averse to giving that officer's name, and could but awkwardly explain his own conduct. He is a small and sprightly person, of light complexion, prompt and decisive in his movements and speech, and is slightly cross-eyed.

Yesterday afternoon the United States police visited the restaurant where Redman doffed his uniform, and there they arrested Henry Miller and Thos. True, the proprietors. These men and their premises were searched and some $630 of the stolen money was there found. On the officer's entrance, one of the keepers threw $30 of the money into an adjoining yard. Soon afterwards they acknowledged that Redman changed his clothes there and afterwards handed them the money. Only $176 were found on his person, making some $776 so far recovered.

Redman passed Thursday evening making extensive purchases of fine clothes. He put up at night at Maggie Saunder's place, on Seventh street, and thence took a Cyprian to the Varieties theatre. Evidently, with all his hardihood, his good luck intoxicated and betrayed him. It is believed, however, that he was not alone in concocting the ingenious plan he so well executed.

Capt. Southworth was arrested for violation of military rules in sending a detail with Redman upon his verbal statement merely. Several other arrests will probably spring out of this remarkable and almost unprecedented affair.

We publish in another part of this paper an account of the arrest of Chas. W. Redman, of the 3d Missouri regiment for robbing a St. Louis bank, in broad day light, of $2,300, by a most ingenious and daring trick. The St. Louis papers of yesterday contain a long confession by Redman, in which he gives the particulars of his affair at the banking house, materially agreeing with the version we publish, and also admitting that he has been guilty of various similar outrages on a less extended scale. The strangest part of the whole affair is that Redman will not be sixteen years old until next May. He is a native of St. Louis county, and volunteered on the 4th ult. His conduct indicates equal shrewdness and depravity, and it is truly deplorable that talent such as his should have been so misapplied.—Cin. Gazette.

WASHINGTON, April 1.

SENATE.—The senate took up the bill for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Wright, of Indiana, spoke against the bill.

Mr. Fessenden spoke in favor of it.

The question being on an amendment offered by Mr. Pomeroy, of Kansas, that an equitable settlement be made with slave and master, Mr. Pomeroy spoke in favor of the amendment as a matter of justice. He said he came here last April, and nearly all the loyal men he found living in the District were slaves. He did not believe any slaves were held here by any right or any law, and we have no right to pay masters for slaves to whom they have no legal right.

Mr. Fessenden said he had presented the resolutions of his state in favor of this measure, and pledging the state for her share of the payment in case the resolution was adopted. A constitutional question had been raised in objection to that measure, but the resolution simply says that the United States ought to afford aid, &c., in regard to the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. Nobody can claim that congress has not the constitutional power to legislate for the District of Columbia in any way that may seem best.

Mr. Pomeroy's amendment was rejected.

Mr. Clark, of N. H., called up his substitute for the bill.

Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, offered an amendment to the original bill, that persons are permitted to retain possession of these slaves till the money appropriated be paid them. Rejected.

Mr. Davis offered another amendment to strike out the limit of $300, as the average amount to be paid for each slave. Rejected 11 to 30.

Mr. Browning, of Illinois, said he found no difficulty as to the constitutionality of the measure. He had an amendment, suggested by a citizen of the District, who was himself a slave holder. He moved to amend Mr. Clark's substitute by making the average value of slaves $500, and providing that half be paid to the master, if loyal, and the other half be retained by the secretary of the treasury, and paid when the slave is liberated: By the bill, if the slave emigrates to another country it shall be paid over to him or her. Adopted.

Mr. Willey moved an amendment to Mr. Clark's substitute so as to provide for the submission of the question to the people of the District if it becomes a law. Disagreed to 13 to 11.

Mr. Trumbull offered an amendment to the original bill, that no payment be made for any slaves to any person who has borne arms in rebellion against the United States, or in any way given aid thereto.—Adopted.

After further discussion the senate went into executive session, and afterwards adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Hutchins, of Ohio, asked leave to introduce the following:

WHEREAS: Brigadier General Hooker, commanding the army of the United States of the Lower Potomac, Maryland, on the 26th day of March, 1852, issued an order of which the following is a copy:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE DIVISION,
CAMP BAKER, Lower Potomac, March 26, 1862.
To the Brigade and Regimental Commanders of this Division:

Messrs. Nally, Gray, Dunnington, Dent, Adams, Speak, Price, Posey, and Coby, citizens of Maryland, owning negroes supposed to be with some of the regimental camps, the Brigadier General Commanding directs that they be permitted to visit all the camps of his command in search of their property, and if found, that they be allowed to take possession of the same without any interference whatever. Should any obstacle be thrown in the way by any officer or soldier in the division, they will at once be reported to these headquarters.

By command of Brig. Gen. Hooker.
[Signed] JOSEPH DICKINSON,
Adjutant General.

Therefore, resolved, That the joint select committee on the conduct of the war be requested to inquire whether said order of Gen. Hooker is not a violation of the recent article of war passed by congress and approved by the President, concerning the action of the army in the return of fugitive slaves, and to report such a remedy as in the judgment of the committee will prevent the issue of similar orders, which, while they outrage the feelings of loyal men, necessarily tend to demoralize the army.

An amendment was adopted to the tax bill, that trust companies be included with the banks, savings institutions, &c., and that they pay three per cent on their income.

A new section was added, provided that on and after May next there shall be paid for every insurance policy which may be made, renewed, continued, or endorsed, a duty of ten cents for every one hundred dollars insured for one year, &c.

The committee of the whole disagreed to the motion of Mr. Colfax to strike out the advertisement section. The section was finally amended as follows: "The tax on advertisements shall be assessed on the amounts received for the same, not the amounts charged, and is reduced from five to three per cent. Newspapers with less than 2,000 circulation, or whose receipts are less than one thousand dollars per annum for advertisements, are exempted from any advertising tax."

The committee rose and the house adjourned.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, April 2.

The following intelligence is from the special correspondent, at Fort Monroe, of the Baltimore American:

The number of rebels in Fort Pulaski, as reported by deserters, is 500. Two German companies there had revolted and were in irons. Sherman's mortar and siege guns were so stationed that the guns of the Fort could not reach them.

The rebels have withdrawn all their troops from the coast and abandoned their earthworks, previously removing their cannon to Savannah. The city of Savannah, however, is understood to be very strongly fortified, and all the approaches to it. The force is variously estimated by refugees at 20,000 to 50,000; probably 20,000 is more nearly correct.

A great despondency existed among the troops and people at Charleston. The fall of Newbern created the greatest consternation. The fire-eaters ridiculed the North Carolina troops, charging them with cowardice. The shopkeepers and bankers in Charleston had also refused to receive North Carolina money, and there being two North Carolina regiments there at the time, a revolt was the consequence, and the shops were broken open and the troops helped themselves. These regiments refused to serve any longer, and were allowed to return home.

No direct information of the abandonment of Pensacola by the rebels has been received, but it was generally believed that our troops had crossed over from Santa Rosa Island and occupied the place.

The latest advices received from Norfolk, by the underground railroad, leaves no room to doubt that the Merrimac was thoroughly repaired and in commission, and ready for another expedition against the wooden walls of the federal navy, and rover transports lying in the Roads. The delay of the Merrimac in coming out is believed to be that she is waiting for ammunition for the heavy guns that have been placed on board of her, and also for some infernal machines being constructed by Bombastes Mallory.

The rebel steamers Jamestown and Yorktown were also getting strengthened and more thoroughly clad with iron to accompany the Merrimac. There is, also, a rumor that two other steamers are being clad with iron at Richmond, to join in the expedition. As to the loss of life on the Merrimac in her conflict with the Monitor, we have now what is claimed to be positive information. One of the recently arrived contrabands states he was a nurse in the general hospital, and that up to the time of his departure he had helped to shroud 32 of the crew of the Merrimac, and that both Commander Buchanan and Lieut. Minor are dead. There were still a number of the wounded surviving.

The contraband also states that the last two shots of the Monitor were represented to be the only ones that seriously injured the Merrimac. The shots were thrown under her shield, at the moment she attempted to run the Monitor down.

The military stationed at Norfolk from the Gulf states have been very severe on the Virginia chivalry, since their defeat at Roanoke. Even the Richmond Blues, the very pink of chivalry, have fallen in public estimation. All award bravery to O. Jennings Wise, but his father has so fallen in public estimation that he is proclaimed in Norfolk, a coward and paltroon. In his escape from Nags Head he rode 30 miles on horseback, notwithstanding he had previous reported himself too ill to remain at Roanoke, at the head of his command.—Wise and Floyd now rank as fleet footed, &c. My informant says that Wise would be hooted, if he were to appear in the streets of Norfolk or Richmond. He has retired to his farm in Princess Ann county.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

CHICAGO, April 3.

Special to the Tribune, from Cairo.—A small boat tied to the levee, from the St. Charles Hotel, occupied by a poor man and family of five persons, parted moorings during the gale yesterday, all on board drowned. The wharf boat of the Ohio and Mobile railroad was blown across the river, and is now entangled in the bushes on the Kentucky shore.

At Paducah the storm was very severe, unroofing thirty houses, including the Marine Hospital, and a large warehouse adjoining the wharf.

The damage done to steamers and property along the river is immense. The Evansville packet Courier barely escaped destruction.

The storm was exceedingly violent in the vicinity of the Cumberland river, but we are without particulars. The steamer Universe returned from a successful search for the steamer Philadelphia, reported sunk. She was found one mile this side of Columbus. Her crew were taken off, excepting three men, who left the Philadelphia in a skiff, and have not been heard from since. Nothing of interest from New Madrid.

10:30 P. M.—The steamer Pike has just arrived from the Island, with intelligence to 1 P. M. The damage to the fleet is less than was anticipated. The gunboats and mortars are uninjured. Two transports, the Pike and Swallow, were damaged considerably. The bombardment was still carried on vigorously, but results unknown.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

Tribune's dispatch.—A reporter, sent to the other side of the Potomac, assures us this morning that Secretary Stanton has issued an order forbidding newspaper correspondents, as well as all others not actually connected in some way or other with the service, from accompanying any of the corps de armie. Very many correspondents are now with the army, and it is understood that an order was dispatched, yesterday, that the whole of them be cleaned out and sent back, under the penalty of immediate arrest and confinement, if they attempt to stay.

Blinker's brigade has been assigned to Fremont's command. Carl Schurz is to have command of a division under Fremont. Col. Van Allen resigned his command of the 3d New York cavalry yesterday. Lieut. Col. Nix will succeed him.

Times' correspondence.—It is not positively determined who will succeed Carl Schurz as minister to Spain, and no nomination will be made to the senate by the president, until Schurz is confirmed Brigadier General. Hon. Geo. Ashmun of Mass. is talked of for the place.

Maj. Donaldson, chief of the quartermaster's department in New Mexico, arrived at Washington to-day. He brings much important information in regard to the rebel raid in that territory. He says the rebels hold every position of value except Forts Craig and Union.

The latter, which is the most important fort in the far west, containing millions of dollars worth of government stores, is now safe beyond peradventure, and garrisoned by 1,500 soldiers, has water within the fortifications, and provisions for an almost unlimited siege. It will be the rallying point for the ample Union forces now marching to expel the invaders. Major D. relates many incidents of the late battle near Fort Craig, and says that Major Lockridge, one of the Nicaragua fillibusters, fell dead at the head of the Texas Rangers, in the terrible charge upon McRae's battery.

Secretary Stanton will proceed to Fortress Monroe, to-morrow, to give matters there his personal attention.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, April 3.

Flour receipts 7329 bbls; market quiet; Sales 8000 bbls. at 5,20a5,25 for superfine Western, 5,35a5,60 common to medium extra Western. Wheat receipts 1218 bushels, market quiet and firm, very limited supply.

LATEST FROM ISLAND NO. 10.

ON BOARD STEAMER WILSON,
OFF ISLAND NO. TEN, March 31, 1862.

The mortar bombardment is continued as usual, but with much more accuracy. The rebels are strongly fortifying. The lower portion of the upper battery, which we supposed completely silenced, is submerged, but large gangs of men and teams are at work upon the upper part repairing and mounting guns.

New and extensive lines of fortifications have been erected upon the main shore, and three or four new and large camps established. They have evidently been largely reinforced.

A new battery has also been established upon the island, and transports have been busily plying from the head to the foot of the island all day.

Everything indicates a desperate battle. The day cannot be far off.

A dispatch from New Orleans, dated March 26th, states that the confederate steamer Vanderbilt had foundered at sea with all on board.

The Appeal is issued on a half sheet.

The Mercury, in view of the scarcity of lead, suggests that the linings of tea chests be melted and run into bullets. The ladies of Charleston are contributing jewels, silver spoons, watches and money to build a gunboat to be called the ladies gunboat.

WASHINGTON, April 1, 1862.

A motion to reconsider the confirmation of Gen. Edward R. S. Canby was made in the Senate yesterday, upon facts touching his conduct in New Mexico, received here since his confirmation. There is now considerable opposition to him.

The Republican, which originally started the story that Frederick P. Stanton is to contest Lane's seat, now asserts that it is without confirmation.

The expedition which took Big Bethel was under command of Gen. Fitz John Porter. Two companies of Berdan's sharpshooters were in the advance.

Information received here from the vicinity of the Rappahannock, states that the rebels do not appear to be building any fortifications in that region.

The commissioners appointed by the government to examine into the cases of State prisoners, go north this week.

Gen. McClellan arrived in Washington last evening from a trip into Virginia. He is said to be in fine health and spirits. He was serenaded last Friday evening at Fairfax Seminary.

Gen. McClellan ended with a speech in response to a serenade, by assuring the soldiers that he relied on them to help him, to fight for him. He added that he did not think this last would be necessary, as he hoped to subdue the rebellion without resorting to such sacrifice.

It is said that the Ways and Means Committee have voted to abandon a discriminating tax against patents.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Evening Journal.

CAIRO, April 2.

The most terrible tornado that has visited this locality for several years came upon us at 3 o'clock this morning. The storm came up from the south—wind, rain, hail, thunder and lightning. Nearly all the transports, barges, steam tugs and floating property was torn from the moorings on the Ohio levee and blown across the river. The slate roof of the St. Charles Hotel lies scattered over the town. Several rows of barracks were leveled with the ground, but happily they were untenanted, or the loss of life would have been terrible.

The Cairo and Columbus wharfboat lies high and dry on the Kentucky shore opposite here. The steamer Illinois had both her chimneys and upper cabins torn away, in the falling of which, four or five lives were lost. Captain Carrol, of the steamer Sallie Wood, had his leg broken, and several others were badly injured. Several barges, which had been covered over and used for store-houses, broke loose and floated down the river. The large piles of government lumber on the Ohio levee were blown into the river.

The wooden barracks at Bird's Point caught the gale about midships, and had to cave in largely. So also at Fort Holt. No loss of life at either of the last two points.

Much anxiety is felt for our fleet down at Island No. 10.

We have no news to-day from below, except that the gunboats and mortars are firing semi-occasionally, and the rebels reply just when they please.

Buford's capture at Union City amounted to seven prisoners and about 40 horses and mules, instead of 100 prisoners and 500 horses, as before telegraphed.

The water soaking through the levee at Cairo raised five inches last night, and is still rising. Both the steam pumps are working, however. The stench in Cairo is intolerable, and much sickness must follow this flood. Medical gentlemen tell me that over 200 distinct and separate odors were ascertained to exist yesterday, with several wards yet to hear from and classify.

CAIRO, April 2—2 P. M.

Brig. Gen. John A. Logan has so far recovered from his wound received at Fort Donelson, as to be able to rejoin his brigade, and to-day started for the seat of war on the Tennessee. His wound is still very painful.

Lieut. Col. Ransom has been appointed colonel of the 11th regiment, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Col. Wallace to a brigadiership. Lieut. Col. Dunlap, of the 29th regiment, has resigned and arrived at Cairo, as have also several other officers of a lesser grade.

Brig. Gen. John Cook, of the 7th regiment, is here, en route for the theatre of operations in Tennessee.

It is a very singular fact that those who have resigned are invariably those who have hitherto escaped unharmed, while the wounded ones are invariably returning to their duties. Comment is unnecessary.

Gen. Strong is absent to-day, at Island No. 10.

The hospital boat Louisiana started today for the Tennessee river, with a full complement of doctors and nurses on board. None of them were dry when they left here, owing to the storm last night.

GEN. BUELL, says the Nashville correspondent of the Chicago Times, never shows himself in public, and is rather difficult of access. He is sometimes seen at the window of his room, in a dressing gown, but has never, I am informed, been known to visit the camps, where he has a hundred thousand troops in waiting.

A Slight Cold,

Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

OF THE

STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from the accumulations of three years, amount to $86,881.20, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $65,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

The Approaching Naval Contest.

The reports in relation to the Merrimac agree that she is ready, and only waiting for more heavy guns. The rebels are also improving the condition of the Jamestown and Yorktown, and evidently mean to make a desperate fight. When it comes off, it will be the greatest naval duel on record. There will be some 420 pounders used on our side this time, besides projectiles not before tried. It will be worth a good deal to witness this grand contest between these iron clad monsters. If the little Monitor is victorious, there will be a grand jubilee throughout the land, as we shall not only have destroyed the power of a dangerous enemy, but it will be a demonstration that we have produced a war vessel that revolutionizes naval contests on the sea. The nations of the world will then know that they must all rebuild their navies; and we can construct one as soon as any.

Trouble Among the Rebels.

The mutiny of two North Carolina regiments at Charleston, must have been a serious affair, as they plundered the stores of the city. Two German companies have also revolted at Fort Pulaski, near Savannah. There seems to be degrees among the chivalry, as Virginia and North Carolina troops are put low down on the list of the brave, by the South Carolinians and Georgians.—Gov. Wise has also lost caste among them, being denounced as a coward and paltroon. He has the company of Pillow and Floyd, previously degraded. The muster roll of paltroons is likely to be increased as the war goes on, and when southern chivalry is simmered down, it will be found to be sounding brass and nothing more.

The radical abolitionist's idea of liberty is,—"Maine law," "no church that is not my church," "no God that is not my God," "no Bible that is not the Bible as I understand it," "no constitution that is not as Wendell Phillips or Charles Sumner expounds it."—N. Y. Express.

The doughface idea of liberty is "free whisky," "no church that is not based on women whipping and stealing children," "no God that is not the exclusive God of the slaveholder," "no Bible that is not the Bible of the oppressor," "no constitution that is not made to protect the rights of rebels, while freedom is the exception and slavery is lawful throughout the republic."

The K. G. C's.—This mischievous society of traitors, whose intrigues came near at one time to precipitate Kentucky into the hands of secessionists, and which doubtless did much to place Kentucky into the hands of rebels, is now "contraband" in Kentucky, the legislature having passed a law making it a criminal offence, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for from one to five years, to belong to any of its lodges.

While this traitorous concern is excluded from a slave state, it is taking root and extending in the free states. Its members are loud and constant in denouncing "abolitionists" as traitors, and declaring republicans to be the cause of the war. Wendell Phillips ought to be hung, but a pardon extended to Jeff. Davis. Every efficient effort of our government to suppress the rebellion is wrong, and the rebels are only defending the constitutional rights assailed by the abolitionists. "By their fruits shall ye know them."

☞ Wherever our armies have gone to crush the rebellion they have invariably found that the localities where there are many slaves rebels are most numerous, and where slavery is weak the Union sentiment is strong. It cannot be doubted that slavery is the cause of the rebellion, and that if there were no slavery there would be no disunion.

☞ The Chicago Times says that "the constitution was made to protect the rights of even rebel citizens from federal vengeance." What are the rights of men who are engaged in a rebellion against all the laws of the land, and who are leagued together for the purpose of taking the life of every one who opposes them? While the rebels are employing the savages to kill and scalp our volunteers, and while their soldiers are desecrating the graves of the brave dead at Bull Run, the Chicago Times talks of the rights of these wretches, and calls them citizens.

The Ladies of Cincinnati After the Mayor.—Forty-six ladies of Cincinnati have petitioned the legislature to impeach and remove from office Mayor Hatch, of that city. This is doubtless on account of the Wendell Philips mobbing affair, which, it is charged, was winked at by the mayor.

☞ It's reported that there are two thousand federal troops sick at Nashville. The change of climate and the water is unfavorable to health. There are no springs nor wells at Nashville, the rock being so near the surface of the ground as to prevent it. Their water is obtained from the river and from the roofs of the houses. With their usual want of enterprise at the south, they have no good cisterns, hence their rain water is poor stuff.

DARING ROBBERY IN ST. LOUIS.

A Private Soldier with a Squad of Wisconsin Boys Arrests a Banker and Robs his Safe.

The St. Louis Democrat gives a statement of what will rank in the annals of crime as one of the boldest and most impudent robberies on record. The young man Redman is, by his own statement, only sixteen years old. The Democrat says:

On the 20th instant, Sergeant C. W. Redman of company H, Third Missouri Volunteers, arrived from Rolla with Col. Shepard and guard, having in charge the prisoners from Pea Ridge. Sergeant Redman has since distinguished himself by conduct exhibiting far more shrewdness, impudence and love of money, than integrity and love of country. On Tuesday, Mr. Cameron, Mr. Jennings, and two or three other citizens residing several miles from the city, on the Bellefontaine road, made complaint at the Provost Marshal's office that a U. S. sergeant and six privates, ostensibly acting under regular orders, had visited and searched their premises, and after seizing various sums of money and other valuables had departed without giving any further explanation of their conduct than that they were obeying orders. The description of the sergeant was too general to promise his speedy detection, and it was really questionable if he were even a U. S. officer.—Steps were, however, taken with a view of discovering and arresting the rogue. On the day after these steps were initiated, an officer claiming to be sergeant Reed, presented himself at the headquarters of Major McConnell, commanding the Provost guard, on Sixth near Morgan street, and exhibited an order, purporting to be signed by Provost Marshal Leighton, for a detail of six men to accompany the said Reed at once, upon particularly pressing and important business. A perusal of the document satisfied Major McConnell that it was a blunder or a forgery, and he accordingly ordered an officer to proceed with the applicant to the Provost Marshal's office. On the way over "Sergeant Reed" suddenly gave his companion the slip, and disappeared.—Thursday morning, in the absence of Maj. McConnell, "Reed" again appeared with an order for six men and presented it Lieutenant Ashton, who perceived it to be irregular and refused to grant it. Not knowing of the previous affair of the kind, the Lieutenant did not order the man's arrest, but sent him to the Provost Marshal's office.—Of course he did not call there. Soon afterwards he appeared at Benton Barracks, No. 60, the quarters of the 17th Wisconsin infantry, and informed Capt. Southworth, of Company G, that Gen. Halleck had sent him for a detail of eight men to be immediately placed in his command for the execution of business of great moment. Although, as we are officially informed, "Reed" exhibited no written document to Captain Southworth, but verbally communicated the pretended order, the Wisconsin captain at once complied with the demand!

Sergeant "Reed" and squad moved with military dignity down Grand avenue, Morgan street and Broadway, to the banking house of G. S. Hammer & Co., No. 231, on the east side of Broadway, between Cherry and Wash streets. The officer placed several of his men at the door to prevent the intrusion of outsiders, and entered with the others. Only Mr. Hammer was in the store, and he was engaged in counting some fifteen thousand dollars which he had in piles around him behind the counter.—"Reed" promptly told the banker that he had General Halleck's order for his immediate arrest. Mr. H. asked for what? but "Reed" replied that he did not know, he had simply to take him in custody, and no doubt wrong would not be done him. Mr. H. said he would place the money in the safe and go at once, but the officer told him he must leave the money as it was. Mr. H. hastily seized a bag containing $7,000 in gold, and also snatched a pile of bills, hurriedly threw them into a small vault in the interior of his large safe, and shut the door. This locked the door of the vault. He then attempted to close the remaining doors of the safe, but a bayonet was inserted between them and he was collared. He at once resigned the key, and was then allowed to shut and fasten the doors. "Reed" gave him in charge of his men, and bade them take him to Broadway Garden, to be guarded by the soldiers there till further orders. The party proceeded up Broadway on a car, and "Reed," with a single sentinel at the door, attempted to unlock the safe. In this he failed, but indignantly dispatched a messenger to Broadway Garden, with an order that the prisoner should be brought back again.

At the Garden, Hammer was received by the commanding officer without a suspicion that he was not properly in military custody, and in the full belief that his commitment was fully authorized. The requisition for his return was obeyed with alacrity. In half an hour after his arrival he left the Garden, again guarded by the six soldiers, and was taken in a street car down Broadway. In the store he was compelled to take the key and unlock the safe. In his eagerness the robber sergeant failed to notice the interior vault, and hence it remained closed. "Reed" next ordered the seven men to escort the captive back again, and saw them safely off.

Leaving the door locked and a sentinel standing outside, he proceeded to the restaurant, No. 347 Broadway, and soon afterward returned in citizen's clothes. He then entered, and dismissed the sentinel, who of course obeyed orders and moved off. A party of curious gazers on the sidewalk, could look directly through the windows into the store and observe all the sergeant's movements. He took several piles of bills from the safe and the rear of the counter, and a large quantity of gold and silver. A banker's tray stacked with half dollars, piled full of them, he covered with some sheets of paper, and leisurely placed under his arm. Laden with his booty, he passed to the door, locked it in sight of the crowd, and walked off with the dignity and speed of a smart man of business engaged in an every day transaction!

Of course the spectators were impressed with the idea that Messrs. Hammer & Co. had been violating some law, and were being summarily dealt with in consequence.

The amount taken was $2,289.10, in United States treasury notes, Illinois currency, and gold and silver.

Immediately after Mr. Hammer's arrest, and when he had been sent off, his partner, Mr. Stryker, arrived, but could only learn that Mr. H. had been subjected to military arrest. He called on the provost marshal general, Provost Marshal Leighton, Gen. Halleck, Major McConnell, but none of them knew aught of the matter. He received a pass to go through all the military prisons, and not until 5 p. m., did he discover where Hammer was.

The facts at last appearing, the prisoner's release was ordered, and the matter was laid before U. S. Police Captain Tunnecliff. His investigations and those of his officers soon showed that "Reed's" real name was Chas. W. Redman, a native of St. Louis county, whose father resides near the Six Mile House, on the Bellefontaine road. Thither several of the detectives proceeded, and there obtained Redman's portrait.

The officers searched the city during the night, and became satisfied that he had not left town, but did not secure him.—Yesterday morning a detective was stationed at each depot to arrest the rogue should he attempt to leave on an early train. The officer at the Alton & Chicago train waited in vain till the cars were just starting, and was then rewarded by seeing Redman leap on board. The detective, Samuel L. Jones, followed and accompanied him to Alton, being unable to get off the cars nearer this city. He returned with the prisoner at about 12 m. yesterday.

Redman acknowledged that he took the money, but insisted that he acted under the orders of a superior officer, who furnished him with a note bearing Gen. Halleck's name. Sergeant "Reed" was averse to giving that officer's name, and could but awkwardly explain his own conduct. He is a small and sprightly person, of light complexion, prompt and decisive in his movements and speech, and is slightly cross-eyed.

Yesterday afternoon the United States police visited the restaurant where Redman doffed his uniform, and there they arrested Henry Miller and Thos. True, the proprietors. These men and their premises were searched and some $630 of the stolen money was there found. On the officer's entrance, one of the keepers threw $30 of the money into an adjoining yard. Soon afterwards they acknowledged that Redman changed his clothes there and afterwards handed them the money. Only $176 were found on his person, making some $776 so far recovered.

Redman passed Thursday evening making extensive purchases of fine clothes. He put up at night at Maggie Saunder's place, on Seventh street, and thence took a Cyprian to the Varieties theatre. Evidently, with all his hardihood, his good luck intoxicated and betrayed him. It is believed, however, that he was not alone in concocting the ingenious plan he so well executed.

Capt. Southworth was arrested for violation of military rules in sending a detail with Redman upon his verbal statement merely. Several other arrests will probably spring out of this remarkable and almost unprecedented affair.

We publish in another part of this paper an account of the arrest of Chas. W. Redman, of the 3d Missouri regiment for robbing a St. Louis bank, in broad day light, of $2,300, by a most ingenious and daring trick. The St. Louis papers of yesterday contain a long confession by Redman, in which he gives the particulars of his affair at the banking house, materially agreeing with the version we publish, and also admitting that he has been guilty of various similar outrages on a less extended scale. The strangest part of the whole affair is that Redman will not be sixteen years old until next May. He is a native of St. Louis county, and volunteered on the 4th ult. His conduct indicates equal shrewdness and depravity, and it is truly deplorable that talent such as his should have been so misapplied.—Cin. Gazette.

Washington, April 1.

Senate.—The senate took up the bill for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Wright, of Indiana, spoke against the bill.

Mr. Fessenden spoke in favor of it.

The question being on an amendment offered by Mr. Pomeroy, of Kansas, that an equitable settlement be made with slave and master, Mr. Pomeroy spoke in favor of the amendment as a matter of justice. He said he came here last April, and nearly all the loyal men he found living in the District were slaves. He did not believe any slaves were held here by any right or any law, and we have no right to pay masters for slaves to whom they have no legal right.

Mr. Fessenden said he had presented the resolutions of his state in favor of this measure, and pledging the state for her share of the payment in case the resolution was adopted. A constitutional question had been raised in objection to that measure, but the resolution simply says that the United States ought to afford aid, &c., in regard to the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. Nobody can claim that congress has not the constitutional power to legislate for the District of Columbia in any way that may seem best.

Mr. Pomeroy's amendment was rejected.

Mr. Clark, of N. H., called up his substitute for the bill.

Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, offered an amendment to the original bill, that persons are permitted to retain possession of these slaves till the money appropriated be paid them. Rejected.

Mr. Davis offered another amendment to strike out the limit of $300, as the average amount to be paid for each slave. Rejected 11 to 30.

Mr. Browning, of Illinois, said he found no difficulty as to the constitutionality of the measure. He had an amendment, suggested by a citizen of the District, who was himself a slave holder. He moved to amend Mr. Clark's substitute by making the average value of slaves $500, and providing that half be paid to the master, if loyal, and the other half be retained by the secretary of the treasury, and paid when the slave is liberated. By the bill, if the slave emigrates to another country it shall be paid over to him or her. Adopted.

Mr. Willey moved an amendment to Mr. Clark's substitute so as to provide for the submission of the question to the people of the District if it becomes a law. Disagreed to 13 to 14.

Mr. Trumbull offered an amendment to the original bill, that no payment be made for any slaves to any person who has borne arms in rebellion against the United States, or in any way given aid thereto.—Adopted.

After further discussion the senate went into executive session, and afterwards adjourned.

House.—Mr. Hutchins, of Ohio, asked leave to introduce the following:

Whereas: Brigadier General Hooker, commanding the army of the United States of the Lower Potomac, Maryland, on the 26th day of March, 1852, issued an order of which the following is a copy:

Headquarters of the Division,
Camp Baker, Lower Potomac, March 26, 1862.
To the Brigade and Regimental Commanders of this Division:

Messrs. Nally, Gray, Dunnington, Dent, Adams, Speak, Price, Posey, and Coby, citizens of Maryland, owning negroes supposed to be with some of the regimental camps, the Brigadier General Commanding directs that they be permitted to visit all the camps of his command in search of their property, and if found, that they be allowed to take possession of the same without any interference whatever. Should any obstacle be thrown in the way by any officer or soldier in the division, they will at once be reported to these headquarters.

By command of Brig. Gen. Hooker.
[Signed] Joseph Dickinson,
Adjutant General.

Therefore, resolved, That the joint select committee on the conduct of the war be requested to inquire whether said order of Gen. Hooker is not a violation of the recent article of war passed by congress and approved by the President, concerning the action of the army in the return of fugitive slaves, and to report such a remedy as in the judgment of the committee will prevent the issue of similar orders, which, while they outrage the feelings of loyal men, necessarily tend to demoralize the army.

An amendment was adopted to the tax bill, that trust companies be included with the banks, savings institutions, &c., and that they pay three per cent on their income.

A new section was added, provided that on and after May next there shall be paid for every insurance policy which may be made, renewed, continued, or endorsed, a duty of ten cents for every one hundred dollars insured for one year, &c.

The committee of the whole disagreed to the motion of Mr. Colfax to strike out the advertisement section. The section was finally amended as follows: "The tax on advertisements shall be assessed on the amounts received for the same, not the amounts charged, and is reduced from five to three per cent. Newspapers with less than 2,000 circulation, or whose receipts are less than one thousand dollars per annum for advertisements, are exempted from any advertising tax."

The committee rose and the house adjourned.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

Baltimore, April 2.

The following intelligence is from the special correspondent, at Fort Monroe, of the Baltimore American:

The number of rebels in Fort Pulaski, as reported by deserters, is 500. Two German companies there had revolted and were in irons. Sherman's mortar and siege guns were so stationed that the guns of the Fort could not reach them.

The rebels have withdrawn all their troops from the coast and abandoned their earthworks, previously removing their cannon to Savannah. The city of Savannah, however, is understood to be very strongly fortified, and all the approaches to it. The force is variously estimated by refugees at 20,000 to 50,000; probably 20,000 is more nearly correct.

A great despondency existed among the troops and people at Charleston. The fall of Newbern created the greatest consternation. The fire-eaters ridiculed the North Carolina troops, charging them with cowardice. The shopkeepers and bankers in Charleston had also refused to receive North Carolina money, and there being two North Carolina regiments there at the time, a revolt was the consequence, and the shops were broken open and the troops helped themselves. These regiments refused to serve any longer, and were allowed to return home.

No direct information of the abandonment of Pensacola by the rebels has been received, but it was generally believed that our troops had crossed over from Santa Rosa Island and occupied the place.

The latest advices received from Norfolk, by the underground railroad, leaves no room to doubt that the Merrimac was thoroughly repaired and in commission, and ready for another expedition against the wooden walls of the federal navy, and rover transports lying in the Roads. The delay of the Merrimac in coming out is believed to be that she is waiting for ammunition for the heavy guns that have been placed on board of her, and also for some infernal machines being constructed by Bombastes Mallory.

The rebel steamers Jamestown and York town were also getting strengthened and more thoroughly clad with iron to accompany the Merrimac. There is, also, a rumor that two other steamers are being clad with iron at Richmond, to join in the expedition. As to the loss of life on the Merrimac in her conflict with the Monitor, we have now what is claimed to be positive information. One of the recently arrived contrabands states he was a nurse in the general hospital, and that up to the time of his departure he had helped to shroud 32 of the crew of the Merrimac, and that both Commander Buchanan and Lieut. Minor are dead. There were still a number of the wounded surviving.

The contraband also states that the last two shots of the Monitor were represented to be the only ones that seriously injured the Merrimac. The shots were thrown under her shield, at the moment she attempted to run the Monitor down.

The military stationed at Norfolk from the Gulf states have been very severe on the Virginia chivalry, since their defeat at Roanoke. Even the Richmond Blues, the very pink of chivalry, have fallen in public estimation. All award bravery to O. Jennings Wise, but his father has so fallen in public estimation that he is proclaimed in Norfolk, a coward and paltroon. In his escape from Nags Head he rode 30 miles on horseback, notwithstanding he had previous reported himself too ill to remain at Roanoke, at the head of his command.—Wise and Floyd now rank as fleet footed, &c. My informant says that Wise would be hooted, if he were to appear in the streets of Norfolk or Richmond. He has retired to his farm in Princess Ann county.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Chicago, April 3.

Special to the Tribune, from Cairo.—A small boat tied to the levee, from the St. Charles Hotel, occupied by a poor man and family of five persons, parted moorings during the gale yesterday, all on board drowned. The wharf boat of the Ohio and Mobile railroad was blown across the river, and is now entangled in the bushes on the Kentucky shore.

At Paducah the storm was very severe, unroofing thirty houses, including the Marine Hospital, and a large warehouse adjoining the wharf.

The damage done to steamers and property along the river is immense. The Evansville packet Courier barely escaped destruction.

The storm was exceedingly violent in the vicinity of the Cumberland river, but we are without particulars. The steamer Universe returned from a successful search for the steamer Philadelphia, reported sunk. She was found one mile this side of Columbus. Her crew were taken off, excepting three men, who left the Philadelphia in a skiff, and have not been heard from since. Nothing of interest from New Madrid.

10:30 P. M.—The steamer Pike has just arrived from the Island, with intelligence to 1 P. M. The damage to the fleet is less than was anticipated. The gunboats and mortars are uninjured. Two transports, the Pike and Swallow, were damaged considerably. The bombardment was still carried on vigorously, but results unknown.

Washington, April 2.

Tribune's dispatch.—A reporter, sent to the other side of the Potomac, assures us this morning that Secretary Stanton has issued an order forbidding newspaper correspondents, as well as all others not actually connected in some way or other with the service, from accompanying any of the corps de armie. Very many correspondents are now with the army, and it is understood that an order was dispatched, yesterday, that the whole of them be cleaned out and sent back, under the penalty of immediate arrest and confinement, if they attempt to stay.

Blinker's brigade has been assigned to Fremont's command. Carl Schurz is to have command of a division under Fremont. Col. Van Allen resigned his command of the 3d New York cavalry yesterday. Lieut. Col. Nix will succeed him.

Times' correspondence.—It is not positively determined who will succeed Carl Schurz as minister to Spain, and no nomination will be made to the senate by the president, until Schurz is confirmed Brigadier General. Hon. Geo. Ashmun of Mass. is talked of for the place.

Maj. Donaldson, chief of the quartermaster's department in New Mexico, arrived at Washington to-day. He brings much important information in regard to the rebel raid in that territory. He says the rebels hold every position of value except Forts Craig and Union.

The latter, which is the most important fort in the far west, containing millions of dollars worth of government stores, is now safe beyond peradventure, and garrisoned by 1,500 soldiers, has water within the fortifications, and provisions for an almost unlimited siege. It will be the rallying point for the ample Union forces now marching to expel the invaders. Major D. relates many incidents of the late battle near Fort Craig, and says that Major Lockridge, one of the Nicaragua fillibusters, fell dead at the head of the Texas Rangers, in the terrible charge upon McRae's battery.

Secretary Stanton will proceed to Fortress Monroe, to-morrow, to give matters there his personal attention.

The Markets.

New York, April 3.

Flour receipts 7329 bbls; market quiet; Sales 8000 bbls. at 5,20a5,25 for superfine Western, 5,35a5,60 common to medium extra Western. Wheat receipts 1218 bushels, market quiet and firm, very liminted supply.

LATEST FROM ISLAND NO. 10.

On Board Steamer Wilson,
Off Island No. Ten, March 31, 1862.

The mortar bombardment is continued as usual, but with much more accuracy. The rebels are strongly fortifying. The lower portion of the upper battery, which we supposed completely silenced, is submerged, but large gangs of men and teams are at work upon the upper part repairing and mounting guns.

New and extensive lines of fortifications have been erected upon the main shore, and three or four new and large camps established. They have evidently been largely reinforced.

A new battery has also been established upon the island, and transports have been busily plying from the head to the foot of the island all day.

Everything indicates a desperate battle. The day cannot be far off.

A dispatch from New Orleans, dated March 26th, states that the confederate steamer Vanderbilt had foundered at sea with all on board.

The Appeal is issued on a half sheet.

The Mercury, in view of the scarcity of lead, suggests that the linings of tea chests be melted and run into bullets. The ladies of Charleston are contributing jewels, silver spoons, watches and money to build a gunboat to be called the ladies gunboat.

Washington, April 1, 1862.

A motion to reconsider the confirmation of Gen. Edward R. S. Canby was made in the Senate yesterday, upon facts touching his conduct in New Mexico, received here since his confirmation. There is now considerable opposition to him.

The Republican, which originally started the story that Frederick P. Stanton is to contest Lane's seat, now asserts that it is without confirmation.

The expedition which took Big Bethel was under command of Gen. Fitz John Porter. Two companies of Berdan's sharpshooters were in the advance.

Information received here from the vicinity of the Rappahannock, states that the rebels do not appear to be building any fortifications in that region.

The commissioners appointed by the government to examine into the cases of State prisoners, go north this week.

Gen. McClellan arrived in Washington last evening from a trip into Virginia. He is said to be in fine health and spirits. He was serenaded last Friday evening at Fairfax Seminary.

Gen. McClellan ended with a speech in response to a serenade, by assuring the soldiers that he relied on them to help him, to fight for him. He added that he did not think this last would be necessary, as he hoped to subdue the rebellion without resorting to such sacrifice.

It is said that the Ways and Means Committee have voted to abandon a discriminating tax against patents.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Evening Journal.

Cairo, April 2.

The most terrible tornado that has visited this locality for several years came upon us at 3 o'clock this morning. The storm came up from the south—wind, rain, hail, thunder and lightning. Nearly all the transports, barges, steam tugs and floating property was torn from the moorings on the Ohio levee and blown across the river. The slate roof of the St. Charles Hotel lies scattered over the town. Several rows of barracks were leveled with the ground, but happily they were untenanted, or the loss of life would have been terrible.

The Cairo and Columbus wharfboat lies high and dry on the Kentucky shore opposite here. The steamer Illinois had both her chimneys and upper cabins torn away, in the falling of which, four or five lives were lost. Captain Carrol, of the steamer Sallie Wood, had his leg broken, and several others were badly injured. Several barges, which had been covered over and used for store-houses, broke loose and floated down the river. The large piles of government lumber on the Ohio levee were blown into the river.

The wooden barracks at Bird's Point caught the gale about midships, and had to cave in largely. So also at Fort Holt. No loss of life at either of the last two points.

Much anxiety is felt for our fleet down at Island No. 10.

We have no news to-day from below, except that the gunboats and mortars are firing semi-occasionally, and the rebels reply just when they please.

Buford's capture at Union City amounted to seven prisoners and about 40 horses and mules, instead of 100 prisoners and 500 horses, as before telegraphed.

The water soaking through the levee at Cairo raised five inches last night, and is still rising. Both the steam pumps are working, however. The stench in Cairo is intolerable, and much sickness must follow this flood. Medical gentlemen tell me that over 200 distinct and separate odors were ascertained to exist yesterday, with several wards yet to hear from and classify.

Cairo, April 2—2 P. M.

Brig. Gen. John A. Logan has so far recovered from his wound received at Fort Donelson, as to be able to rejoin his brigade, and to-day started for the seat of war on the Tennessee. His wound is still very painful.

Lieut. Col. Ransom has been appointed colonel of the 11th regiment, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Col. Wallace to a brigadiership. Lieut. Col. Dunlap, of the 29th regiment, has resigned and arrived at Cairo, as have also several other officers of a lesser grade.

Brig. Gen. John Cook, of the 7th regiment, is here, en route for the theatre of operations in Tennessee.

It is a very singular fact that those who have resigned are invariably those who have hitherto escaped unharmed, while the wounded ones are invariably returning to their duties. Comment is unnecessary.

Gen. Strong is absent to-day, at Island No. 10.

The hospital boat Louisiana started today for the Tennessee river, with a full complement of doctors and nurses on board. None of them were dry when they left here, owing to the storm last night.

Gen. Buell, says the Nashville correspondent of the Chicago Times, never shows himself in public, and is rather difficult of access. He is sometimes seen at the window of his room, in a dressing gown, but has never, I am informed, been known to visit the camps, where he has a hundred thousand troops in waiting.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES

A Slight Cold,
Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

Public Speakers & Singers

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from the accumulations of three years, amount to $86,881.20, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $65,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

A. W. Kellogg, Secretary.
H. G. Wilson, General Agent.

The company has a large number of lives insured in Janesville. Applications for insurance received by the agent, Willard Merrill, at his law office in Lappin's block.

Death of Isaac Woodle.

We have a sad duty to perform in announcing the death of Isaac Woodle. He died this morning about ten o'clock. For some months past Mr. W. had been in failing health, but had ever cherished a confident hope of recovery. No man possessed a kinder heart or more benevolent impulses than Mr. W., and to a large circle of friends at home and abroad his death will come like a personal affliction.

Total Vote of the City.

By a mistake in taking from a memorandum the majorities in the third ward instead of the whole vote of the ward, the total vote of the city was made to appear less than it actually was. We republish our statement of yesterday, with the correction. It will be seen that the whole vote for mayor was 1217, and not 1143, as we stated:

Mayor—Doe, 610
Hudson, 607—maj. 3
Treasurer—Foord, 645
Stoddard, 565—maj. 80
Clerk—Boss, 602
Barrere, 594—maj. 8
Police Justice—Comstock, 636
Parker, 545—maj. 91
Justice of Peace—Nichols, 681
Washington, 517—maj 164
School Com'r—Lawrence, 664
Patten, 549—maj. 115

Bar Meeting.

Isaac Woodle, Esquire, having departed this life this morning, at his residence in this city, the members of the bar are requested to meet at the office of Sloan, Patten & Bailey, at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning to take appropriate action in relation to his death, and make suitable arrangements for attending his funeral.

JANESVILLE, April 3, 1862.

☞ We learn that Lieut. J. L. Murray, of company B, (Janesville City Zouaves,) Thirteenth Wisconsin, has been appointed aid to Col. Deitzler who was acting brigadier general of the forces at Fort Scott.

THE THIRTEENTH GOING TO NEW MEXICO.—We have received undoubted information from Fort Scott, that the Wisconsin Thirteenth has been ordered to rendezvous at Lawrence, Kansas, preparatory to a march to New Mexico. So far as the health and safety of the regiment is concerned, this is favorable expedition. The route to New Mexico is over an old and well beaten track. The road is one of the best that can be imagined, and has been so long traveled that there is no obstructions in the way; the army and the transportation wagons can move forward without difficulty. It is a vast prairie country nearly the whole distance. It is doubtless intended by this movement to aid our forces at Fort Craig, as well as to recover possession of Santa Fe, which has recently fallen into the hands of a few hundred rebel marauders from Texas. Fort Craig is about 160 miles south of Santa Fe, on the Rio Grande.

ANOTHER ARMY PAPER.—Some of the members of the 9th Wisconsin regiment published an army paper while the regiment was at Fort Scott. It was printed on brown wrapping paper, on types on which was formerly printed the Fort Scott Democrat. The paper contains an interesting account of the march of the regiment together with other items of war news.

WATER WITCH.—The regular meeting of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 will be held at 7½ o'clock this evening. Let every member attend.

A. D. STODDARD, Clerk.

☞ Some of our generals who were so anxious to "obey the laws" when slaves were to be delivered up, are disregarding the new army regulation against restoring fugitive slaves. Hooker, Buell and Halleck are said to be among the number. It is evident that it was not obedience to the laws that prompted their acts, but the love of an aristocratic institution. If this is not so, why don't they obey the new law?

PRINCE NAPOLEON'S ADVICE.—Prince Napoleon, writing to a friend in this country, says the N. Y. Evening Post, closes it with this sentence: "Make an end of slavery." This is sound advice, as there can be no permanent peace while slavery exists ready to rebel when it cannot control the nation.

AN ENORMOUS GUN.—A cannon, said to weigh 25,000 pounds, while passing thro' New Haven, on Friday, broke down the car on which it was loaded, while the latter was switching off on a side track. The curiosity of the public to see the monster became so great that the railroad officials were obliged to put it under lock and key in an engine-house.

☞ Gen. Curtis has confiscated three slaves belonging to rebels as contrabands of war, and by a general order given them their freedom. We are inclined to think that this order of emancipation will not be "modified." Since Gen. Fremont was driven from his command, for just this offence, and nothing else, things have changed, and the voice of the people has been heard in the land.

☞ The democratic party is to be organized anew. The leader in this patriotic work is Vallandigham, who promised to join the rebels if the south should be "coerced." Perhaps he thinks he can aid rebellion best in his new undertaking.

JEFF. DAVIS PLAYING PHARAOH.—The Richmond Enquirer says that the Jews in that city have packed up their goods and gold and silver ornaments, and are in great tribulation and ferment that their flight has been stopped.

Legislative.

WEDNESDAY, April 2.

SENATE.—A large number of bills were passed, among which were the farm mortgage bill, the bill providing the adjustment of the government tax, the bill to levy a tax for war purposes, and to provide for the appointment of an assistant superintendent of public property. The bill providing for the war fund contains a power to issue $200,000 additional state bonds, instead of levying a direct tax of $200,000 if such bonds are not disposed of previous to the time for making out the tax rolls. The amendments of the senate to the resolutions of the assembly for rescinding the the state rights resolutions of 1859 were adhered to, and the resolution rescinding the resolutions of 1849 were rejected. The appropriation bills for the various benevolent institutions were passed: To the Hospital for Insane $30,000; to Deaf and Dumb Institute $12,200; to Blind Institute $8,000.

ASSEMBLY.—Mr. Vivian offered a resolution affirming that the supreme court decision does not affect taxation since 1860, and that it is inexpedient to change the existing laws. Mr. Platto introduced a bill to appropriate $1,900 to pay the expenses of Mr. Larkin, sheriff of Milwaukee, upon his recent trial upon charges preferred against him.

The bill introduced by Senator Hopkins, early in the session, reducing the rate of interest to seven per cent., passed by a decided vote. It had previously passed the senate.

The bill providing for referring the old claim of the Rock river canal company to five arbitrators for a final award, passed, only Mr. Sanborn voting against it.

The bill to pay the indebtedness of the state university out of the principal of the university fund, passed.

Southern News via. Cairo.

[Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CAIRO, April 1.

F. B. Wilkie, of the New York Times, who accompanied the expedition to Union City, returned this evening with copies of the Memphis Appeal of the 27th, and the Charleston Mercury of the 22d, from which I condense the following:

President Davis, in secret session, had advised the confederate congress that the prisoners released by the Yankee government on parole be absolved from their oath and allowed to take part in the approaching struggle for independence. He urged it as retaliation for the "infamous and reckless breach of faith exhibited by Mr. Lincoln in the exchange of prisoners."

Attempts are being made to raise troops by conscription. Editors and compositors are not to be enrolled except for local duty.

The New Orleans Delta of the 26th, referring to the gallantry exhibited by Capt. Rucker in defense of his battery at Island No. 10, says that one single battery has thus far sustained the brunt of the bombardment.

The Appeal says the recent reverses of the confederate army are nerving them with good faith, confidence, and hope, and that it entertains no doubt of ultimate success; also, that Generals Van Dorn and Jeff. Thompson are concentrating large forces at Pacahontas, Arkansas, preparatory to an attack upon the federals at New Madrid.

In Mississippi, planters were pulling up their cotton for fire and faggot.

Gen. Pillow has gone to Richmond.

SEVERE.—An exchange cuttingly says: Would it not be a good plan to establish the Nashville as a regular mail steamer between Liverpool and Beaufort! There is nothing apparently on this side to prevent.

IN DEMAND.—Old uniforms made of "shoddy" are in demand, to be manufactured into blotting paper. We doubt if they will ever blot out the remembrance of the sins of certain contractors.

The Senate Committee on the District of Columbia have statistics showing the number of slaves to be fifteen hundred now, though the census of 1860 placed them at three thousand. Many of them have been sent away since the agitation of the subject.

☞ Five regiments and six batteries have been ordered from Kansas to New Mexico.

BULL RUN CANNON RECAPTURED.—A sergeant of the 21st regiment writes that among the cannon captured by Gen. Burnside, at Newbern, were thirteen brass field pieces taken by the enemy at Bull Run.

THE PLOT TO ASSASSINATE THE PRESIDENT.—For a long time it was believed that an Italian barber of Baltimore was the Orsini who undertook to slay President Lincoln on his journey to the capital in February, 1861, and it is possible he was one of the plotters; but it has come out on a recent trial of a man named Byrne, in Richmond, that he was the captain of the band that was to take the life of Mr. Lincoln. This Byrne used to be a notorious gambler and leading democrat of Baltimore, and emigrated to Richmond shortly after the 17th of April, of bloody memory. He was recently arrested in Jeff. Davis' capital on a charge of keeping a gambling house and of disloyalty to the chief traitor's pretended government. Wigfall testified to Byrne's loyalty to the rebel cause, and gave in evidence that Byrne was the captain of the gang who were to kill Mr. Lincoln, and upon this evidence, it appears, he was let go. Of course, to be guilty of such a pretended crime is a mantle large enough to cover up all other sins against society and the divine law. So Wigfall has revealed the Baltimore Orsini at last.

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

Death of Isaac Woodle.

We have a sad duty to perform in announcing the death of Isaac Woodle. He died this morning about ten o'clock. For some months past Mr. W. had been in failing health, but had ever cherished a confident hope of recovery. No man possessed a kinder heart or more benevolent impulses than Mr. W., and to a large circle of friends at home and abroad his death will come like a personal affliction.

Total Vote of the City.

By a mistake in taking from a memorandum the majorities in the third ward instead of the whole vote of the ward, the total vote of the city was made to appear less than it actually was. We republish our statement of yesterday, with the correction. It will be seen that the whole vote for mayor was 1217, and not 1143, as we stated:

Mayor—Doe, 610
Hudson, 607—maj. 3
Treasurer—Foord, 645
Stoddard, 565—maj. 80
Clerk—Boss, 602
Barrere, 594—maj. 8
Police Justice—Comstock, 636
Parker, 545—maj. 91
Justice of Peace—Nichols, 681
Washington, 517—maj 164
School Com'r—Lawrence, 664
Patten, 549—maj. 115

Bar Meeting.

Isaac Woodle, Esquire, having departed this life this morning, at his residence in this city, the members of the bar are requested to meet at the office of Sloan, Patten & Bailey, at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning to take appropriate action in relation to his death, and make suitable arrangements for attending his funeral.

JANESVILLE, April 3, 1862.

☞ We learn that Lieut. J. L. Murray, of company B, (Janesville City Zouaves,) Thirteenth Wisconsin, has been appointed aid to Col. Deitzler who was acting brigadier general of the forces at Fort Scott.

THE THIRTEENTH GOING TO NEW MEXICO.—We have received undoubted information from Fort Scott, that the Wisconsin Thirteenth has been ordered to rendezvous at Lawrence, Kansas, preparatory to a march to New Mexico. So far as the health and safety of the regiment is concerned, this is favorable expedition. The route to New Mexico is over an old and well beaten track. The road is one of the best that can be imagined, and has been so long traveled that there is no obstructions in the way; the army and the transportation wagons can move forward without difficulty. It is a vast prairie country nearly the whole distance. It is doubtless intended by this movement to aid our forces at Fort Craig, as well as to recover possession of Santa Fe, which has recently fallen into the hands of a few hundred rebel marauders from Texas. Fort Craig is about 160 miles south of Santa Fe, on the Rio Grande.

ANOTHER ARMY PAPER.—Some of the members of the 9th Wisconsin regiment published an army paper while the regiment was at Fort Scott. It was printed on brown wrapping paper, on types on which was formerly printed the Fort Scott Democrat. The paper contains an interesting account of the march of the regiment together with other items of war news.

WATER WITCH.—The regular meeting of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 will be held at 7½ o'clock this evening. Let every member attend.

A. D. STODDARD, Clerk.

☞ Some of our generals who were so anxious to "obey the laws" when slaves were to be delivered up, are disregarding the new army regulation against restoring fugitive slaves. Hooker, Buell and Halleck are said to be among the number. It is evident that it was not obedience to the laws that prompted their acts, but the love of an aristocratic institution. If this is not so, why don't they obey the new law?

PRINCE NAPOLEON'S ADVICE.—Prince Napoleon, writing to a friend in this country, says the N. Y. Evening Post, closes it with this sentence: "Make an end of slavery." This is sound advice, as there can be no permanent peace while slavery exists ready to rebel when it cannot control the nation.

AN ENORMOUS GUN.—A cannon, said to weigh 25,000 pounds, while passing thro' New Haven, on Friday, broke down the car on which it was loaded, while the latter was switching off on a side track. The curiosity of the public to see the monster became so great that the railroad officials were obliged to put it under lock and key in an engine house.

☞ Gen. Curtis has confiscated three slaves belonging to rebels as contrabands of war, and by a general order given them their freedom. We are inclined to think that this order of emancipation will not be "modified." Since Gen. Fremont was driven from his command, for just this offence, and nothing else, things have changed, and the voice of the people has been heard in the land.

☞ The democratic party is to be organized anew. The leader in this patriotic work is Vallandigham, who promised to join the rebels if the south should be "coerced." Perhaps he thinks he can aid rebellion best in his new undertaking.

JEFF. DAVIS PLAYING PHARAOH.—The Richmond Enquirer says that the Jews in that city have packed up their goods and gold and silver ornaments, and are in great tribulation and ferment that their flight has been stopped.

Legislative.

WEDNESDAY, April 2.

SENATE.—A large number of bills were passed, among which were the farm mortgage bill, the bill providing the adjustment of the government tax, the bill to levy a tax for war purposes, and to provide for the appointment of an assistant superintendent of public property. The bill providing for the war fund contains a power to issue $200,000 additional state bonds, instead of levying a direct tax of $200,000 if such bonds are not disposed of previous to the time for making out the tax rolls. The amendments of the senate to the resolutions of the assembly for rescinding the the state rights resolutions of 1859 were adhered to, and the resolution rescinding the resolutions of 1849 were rejected. The appropriation bills for the various benevolent institutions were passed: To the Hospital for Insane $30,000; to Deaf and Dumb Institute $12,200; to Blind Institute $8,000.

ASSEMBLY.—Mr. Vivian offered a resolution affirming that the supreme court decision does not affect taxation since 1860, and that it is inexpedient to change the existing laws. Mr. Platto introduced a bill to appropriate $1,900 to pay the expenses of Mr. Larkin, sheriff of Milwaukee, upon his recent trial upon charges preferred against him.

The bill introduced by Senator Hopkins, early in the session, reducing the rate of interest to seven per cent., passed by a decided vote. It had previously passed the senate.

The bill providing for referring the old claim of the Rock river canal company to five arbitrators for a final award, passed, only Mr. Sanborn voting against it.

The bill to pay the indebtedness of the state university out of the principal of the university fund, passed.

Southern News via. Cairo.

(Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.)

CAIRO, April 1.

F. B. Wilkie, of the New York Times, who accompanied the expedition to Union City, returned this evening with copies of the Memphis Appeal of the 27th, and the Charleston Mercury of the 22d, from which I condense the following:

President Davis, in secret session, had advised the confederate congress that the prisoners released by the Yankee government on parole be absolved from their oath and allowed to take part in the approaching struggle for independence. He urged it as retaliation for the "infamous and reckless breach of faith exhibited by Mr. Lincoln in the exchange of prisoners."

Attempts are being made to raise troops by conscription. Editors and compositors are not to be enrolled except for local duty.

The New Orleans Delta of the 26th, referring to the gallantry exhibited by Capt. Rucker in defense of his battery at Island No. 10, says that one single battery has thus far sustained the brunt of the bombardment.

The Appeal says the recent reverses of the confederate army are nerving them with good faith, confidence, and hope, and that it entertains no doubt of ultimate success; also, that Generals Van Dorn and Jeff. Thompson are concentrating large forces at Pacahontas, Arkansas, preparatory to an attack upon the federals at New Madrid.

In Mississippi, planters were pulling up their cotton for fire and faggot.

Gen. Pillow has gone to Richmond.

SEVERE.—An exchange cuttingly says: Would it not be a good plan to establish the Nashville as a regular mail steamer between Liverpool and Beaufort! There is nothing apparently on this side to prevent.

IN DEMAND.—Old uniforms made of "shoddy" are in demand, to be manufactured into blotting paper. We doubt if they will ever blot out the remembrance of the sins of certain contractors.

The Senate Committee on the District of Columbia have statistics showing the number of slaves to be fifteen hundred now; though the census of 1860 placed them at three thousand. Many of them have been sent away since the agitation of the subject.

☞ Five regiments and six batteries have been ordered from Kansas to New Mexico.

BULL RUN CANNON RECAPTURED.—A sergeant of the 21st regiment writes that among the cannon captured by Gen. Burnside, at Newbern, were thirteen brass field pieces taken by the enemy at Bull Run.

THE PLOT TO ASSASSINATE THE PRESIDENT.—For a long time it was believed that an Italian barber of Baltimore was the Orsini who undertook to slay President Lincoln on his journey to the capital in February, 1861, and it is possible he was one of the plotters; but it has come out on a recent trial of a man named Byrne, in Richmond, that he was the captain of the band that was to take the life of Mr. Lincoln. This Byrne used to be a notorious gambler and leading democrat of Baltimore, and emigrated to Richmond shortly after the 17th of April, of bloody memory. He was recently arrested in Jeff. Davis' capital on a charge of keeping a gambling house and of disloyalty to the chief traitor's pretended government. Wigfall testified to Byrne's loyalty to the rebel cause, and gave in evidence that Byrne was the captain of the gang who were to kill Mr. Lincoln, and upon this evidence, it appears, he was let go. Of course, to be guilty of such a pretended crime is a mantle large enough to cover up all other sins against society and the divine law. So Wigfall has revealed the Baltimore Orsini at last.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,
Are made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.
THEIR EQUAL!
We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are
UNSURPASSED!
For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.
For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.
As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.
These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.
Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES,

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebel ion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
